VI. Immigrants' Access

A. Immigrants' Access to Public Benefits and Housing Programs – Advanced

Contact Hours: 3.0

Public benefit programs have different rules and guidelines on immigrants' eligibility for public benefits; therefore, helping immigrants obtain these benefits can be a challenging and complicated task.

We will explain what “qualified aliens” and “Person Residing Under Color of Law” (PRUCOL) are. We will cover the immigration criteria for:

- Cash Assistance
- SNAP
- Medicaid
- Essential Plan
- Child Health Plus
- Medicare
- Federal Housing Programs
- NYS and NYC Housing Lotteries
- NYC Rental Assistance Programs and Shelter System

(Programs mentioned above have other eligibility criteria which we will not review in this course.)

We will introduce several tools to help in identifying programs for immigrants with a certain status, as well as immigrants without documentation.

This course will not discuss how an immigrant can naturalize or become legal in the U.S. or how one can obtain any of the statuses that will be discussed.

Target Audience: Social service and legal professionals who work with immigrants and who assist them with applying for benefits.
